

Roll-out/Vision – Continued

Phase #4 - next
Little League Baseball
Organization/playoff format

Arrange international amateur competition along the lines of Little League Baseball. When this Phase #4 is fully developed: Multiple city teams to compete for City titles. City team winners to compete for state/provincial/prefecture titles. State/provincial/prefecture winners to compete for National titles. National winners to compete for Federation titles. Federation winners to compete for World title. Sanctioned league play must be according to “Official Rules” developed by Taylor Sports, L.L.C., must use the Taylor Sports Boot’r and use Taylor Sports’ W.I.S.A. as the sport’s governing body.

Organization* might look like the following:

World ICE SOCCER Association
(W.I.S.A. – Amateur)
Taylor Sports, L.L.C.
Brighton, Michigan, U.S.A.

North American Federation	South American Federation	European Federation	Middle East Federation	Asian Federation	Satellite Federation
Canada	Argentina	Britain	Bahrain	China	Australia
Mexico	Brazil	France	Qatar	Korea	Indonesia
U. S. A. (East)	Chile	Germany	Turkey	Russia (East)	New Zealand
U. S. A. (West)	Uruguay	Russia (West)	U. A. E.	Singapore	South Africa

- Conduct negotiations with certain government sports authorities to be able to offer ICE SOCCER
- Continue efforts to obtain additional sponsors and/or investors
- Secure widespread television broadcasting of games

* Examples of cities within these Countries/Federations with existing ice rinks:

- Argentina: Bariloche, Buenos Aires, Ushuaia
- Brazil: Brazalia, Rio de Janerio, Sao Paulo
- Germany: Berlin, Dortmund, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Munich, Saarbrucken, Stuttgart + many others
- Indonesia: Bandung, Jakarta
- Qatar: Al Khawr, Doha
- Russia (East): Irkutsk, Khabarovsk, Vladivostok
- South Africa: Cape Town, Durban, Johannesburg
- U.A.E.: Abu Dhabi, Al Ain, Dubai

 Europe could easily be expanded into another Federation to include: Belgium, Denmark, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, etc.