

Roll-out/Vision – Continued

Phase #5 - future

W.I.S.A. - Professional
Professional franchised league play
FIFA format

World ICE SOCCER Association
(W.I.S.A. – Professional)
Taylor Sports, L.L.C.
Brighton, Michigan, U.S.A.

Longer term, after (or concurrent with) success in building Phase 4 and with partnership, offer franchise opportunities to interested parties ... world-wide.

Larger international cities would field professional players to represent their team/club. At the end of a prescribed season or after an agreed upon number of games are played by each club, final league playoffs would be scheduled and a world championship game (or series) would be played.

- Investors and individuals interested in sports team ownership will be sought
- High profile talks with FIFA, USA Soccer and other sports federations/organizations to occur

Professional leagues (in these* or other cities) might be organized as follows:

North American League	European League	Asian League	Southern/Pacific League
Minneapolis	Moscow	Seoul	Tokyo
Ottawa	Berlin	Beijing	Sidney
Chicago	St. Petersburg	Ankara	Cape Town
Denver	Stockholm	Ulaanbaatar	Taipei
Vancouver	London	Almaty	Jakarta
Philadelphia	Milan	Baku	Osaka
Boston	Zurich	Dehradun	Buenos Aires
Mexico City	Paris	Dubai	Puerto Montt
Calgary	Copenhagen	Doha	Montevideo
Monterrey	Helsinki	Harbin	Rio de Janeiro
Halifax	Reykjavik	Vladivostok	Manila
Seattle	Amsterdam	Bishkek	Singapore

* All of these cities currently have professional hockey-size indoor ice rinks.