ICE SOCCER is an emerging new sport where competing teams try to score by kicking a projectile, the Boot'r™, through the opponent's goal. The Boot'r is not a ball; it is uniquely shaped and play-action weighted to allow sustainable, controlled play. Future professional leagues are envisioned.

- What
- A team sport played on ice without ice skates
 - Designed for competitive league play
 - Easily adaptable for casual, family-recreational play
- Where
- Indoor ice arenas
 - Outdoor ice surfaces comparable in size to indoor ice arenas
 - Frozen lakes, ponds, flooded/frozen back yards of any size
- Who
- Ages 10 and above
 - All male, all female or co-ed teams
 - Anyone in reasonably good physical shape
 - No advanced conditioning or highly developed skills required to have a good time
- When
- Available ice time – varies, depending on targeted clientele
 - Summer/winter/shoulder-season leagues – whenever/wherever there is ice
- Teams
- Adult: nine (9) players on ice (full strength) with provisions for 1-2 players short
 - Youth: ten (10) players on ice (full strength) with provisions for 2-3 players short
 - Casual (family/neighborhood “sand lot” play): adaptable to available ice surface and number of players present.
- Equipment
- The Boot'r, which allows controlled, sustainable play – get ordering information at: http://www.icesoccer.com/ordering_bootr.html
 - adult version
 - youth version (boys 10 – 13/14 and girls 10 – 17/18)
 - Footwear
 - special high-traction-on-ice shoes, available from Acacia Sports - <https://www.acaciasports.com/collections/all-broomball>
 - not allowed: “sneakers”, skates, or cleated/spiked footwear
 - Protective Gear
 - helmet designed to provide maximum side and back of head protection (mandatory)
 - elbow pads, knee pads, wrist guards (all optional)

Rules (at a glance)

- Scoring: like regular field soccer
- Game length: 30-60 minutes, depending on ice time available
- Offside: very different from other sports
- Cannot use hands and/or forearms to control or direct the Boot'r
- Heading, slide tackling, acrobatic kicking, boarding, and body checking not allowed
- Penalties for play infractions and unsportsmanlike conduct
- Complete, copyrighted “Official Rules of ICE SOCCER” included with purchase of a Boot'r
